Wm Gooch. Letter to my Lord. (about an anonymous letter -) — I hope to prove an unwarrantable defamation, as well as a most wicked imposition upon your Lordship. — that Mr. Dickie he has taken the liberty to censure is a man of a good report, as well beloved by his parishioners for his diligence in his duty & uniform behaviour as your Lordship looks for from them. I once indeed did reprimand him for being too gay in his apparel, he told he was much in want of a coat, and what he had on was the ~~the~~ only coloured cloth he could get. He has lately married a fortune of £2000. & one of a good family. — July 8. 1735. (Rev. Adam Dickie received the Kings Bounty for the Apr. 12. 1731 - nothing further is known of him)

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

From the "Garlington Notes of The Chappell Family" by P. A. Chappell, I have the record of Edwin Conway Garlington born March 5, 1746 in Lancaster County, Va, died in Laurens, S. C. 1823. He moved to Halifax Co., Va. and there married Nov. 13, 1774 Susanna Dickie (b. Jan. 12, died Dec. 3, 1795) daughter of John and Ailsey Dickie. Edwin Conway Garlington settled in Halifax Co.

E. C. Garlington's plantation was on the north side of Dan River near South Boston. Between 1800 and 1810 he removed with his brother-in-law John Dickie settling on the Saluda River in Laurens District.

The services of John Dickie Sr. were used by me and as follows:

Halifax County Va.

The Public Claims of Halifax Co. are the names of the persons in that county who aided the American Revolution by furnishing supplies etc.

John Dickie gave 9 pecks of corn and 12 lb of fodder etc. etc.

The above is found in the "Chappell Family" by P. A. Chappell.

Cordially,

Loila Garlington Reeves.
